

D'PAUW WON FROM MARQUETTE

TIGERS DEFEAT NORTHERN QUINTET BY SCORE OF 29 TO 20

WHITE WAS THE STAR

For the DePauw Aggregation. Game
Played Monday Night Was Both
Slow and Interesting at Times

Although playing erratic ball, the DePauw Tigers triumphed over the scrappy Marquette basket ball quintet in the Bowman gym on Monday night by the score of 29 to 20.

At times, the Old Gold players displayed splendid team work in carrying the ball down the floor to the basket. At other times, the Tigers displayed a poor exhibition of the hard-wood game and throughout the entire contest missed many shots both from the field and the foul line.

As usual Paul White, DePauw's star forward, was high point man of the fray with thirteen points to his credit. "Whitey" however seemed to miss his running mate, Harold Laughlin the other veteran Tiger forward who was confined to his bed on account of a broken nose and illness. Capt. Wills played a good game and accounted for five goals from the field and "Tiny" Hirt was the stellar performer on defense for the Ashmore aggregation.

With the score standing 16 to 13 at the half in favor of DePauw, the Milwaukee squad came back strong and tied the count at 16 all. Forging ahead by several points, the Tiger mentor jerked Irvin and Wills and sent Roe and Butler into the game. Roe tossed in a goal from the field and Butler put up a good fight while they were in action.

Coach Ashmore then sent back his regulars, Irvin and Wills and they finished the game, each making a field goal before the final whistle.

Quinn and McKenna were the bright lights on offense for the Marquette team while "Red" Dunn played a good defensive game.

The line up and summary is as follows:

DePauw (29)	Marquette (20)
White	Forward
Wills	Forward
Johnson	Center
Irvin	Guard
Hirt	Guard
	Gaukler

Field goals: White 5, Wills 5, Irvin 1; Quinn 4, McKenna 3, Stemper 1, McCormick 1.

Fouls: White 3, Johnson 1, Irvin 1; Quinn 2, Dunn 2.

Substitutions: Roe for Irvin, Butler for Wills, Irvin for Roe, Wills for Butler; McCormick for Stemper, Fitzgerald for McKenna.

Referee: Meloney. Umpire: York.

NOTES OF THE GAME

Coach "Griz" Wagner of Franklin at the press table during the game. The Franklin mentor had his eyes glued on Paul White during the fray and watched every move of the Tiger forward. Wagner coached "Whitey" for four years when the DePauw star was a member of the famous Franklin high school quintet.

"Tubby" Moffett, athletic coach at Brazil was here for the game. It looked like old times, to see Bob Gibson and Moffett chatting together just before the start of the contest.

Somebody said Pete Vaughan, of Wabash was a spectator at the game but we couldn't locate him in the crowd.

Guernsey VanRiper, of Indianapolis was an interesting visitor on the sidelines.

The score might have been different if the Tigers had been up to par in their foul throws. Only five free throws were made out of twelve or fifteen chances. The locals were also off on shots from the field.

Cloverdale sent up a loyal delegation of DePauw fans for the game. Coach Cochenour and his high school squad occupied a section of seats on the east side of the gym.

Quinn, the fast Marquette forward, was one of the best dribblers we have seen in action on the DePauw floor this season. Twice, the little fellow took the ball down through the Tiger defense for under the basket shots. He made them good, too.

Wabash here, Thursday night, Nuff sed.

COUNCIL MEETS TONIGHT

The City Council will meet this evening at seven o'clock.

FILE TWO SUITS

The town of Cloverdale has filed two suits in the Putnam Circuit Court against Clay Reese and the American Club. Both suits charge violation of a city ordinance regarding the paying of tax on pool or billiard tables.

Reese is charged with having purchased a pool table on February 16 and not paying tax on it. The American Club is charged with the same violation.

Corwin and Gillen represent the plaintiff in both cases.

COMMITTEE TAKES UP NEW EFFORT

SENATE BODY INVESTIGATING
OIL SCANDAL WILL TRACE
FALL'S ACTIONS FOR TIME

IMPLICATE HIGHER-UPS

Senator Walsh will subpoena Telegraph Officials to Get Copies of Messages Sent to Sec. Fall

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—In a further effort to trace reports that government officials guided the course of former Secretary Fall after the 'scandal' disclosures, the senate Teapot Dome committee today called for telegraph and telephone records.

Senator Thomas J. Walsh took this step when informed Fall had received advice from men high in the government and even, perhaps some members of the investigating committee. Strong indications were given that some definite information along this line had been discovered in the files of telephone companies.

The committee wants every telegram addressed from Washington to Fall and Edward B. McLean, his host—or to any of McLean's attaches—during their sojourn in Palm Beach in December and January. General managers of the local telegraph companies were summoned for this purpose. Additional subpoenas were served today upon telephone officials for records of long distance telephone calls from Washington to Palm Beach to Fall or later while he was in New Orleans. These subpoenas are returnable tomorrow.

A subpoena also was issued for service upon G. D. Wahlberg, former secretary to Harry F. Sinclair. When Wahlberg was last on the stand he mentioned something about giving some bonds to "Mr. Hayes." The committee thought at the time "Mr. Hayes" was probably an attaché in the Sinclair-New York office, but Wahlberg will be asked about it when he returns.

Demands have been made upon the committee from certain sources to have Will H. Hays, former postmaster general summoned to tell what he knows of the charges made by Senator Heflin of Alabama that the leasing of the naval reserves was the result of a "deal" made in the Blackstone hotel, Chicago, before the late President Harding was nominated as presidential candidate. No intimation has been given by Walsh that he will subpoena Hays because at this time there is no definite evidence before the committee that Hays knows anything about the matter.

BUSINESS MEN SIGN UP FOR LOCAL CHAMBER OF

A canvass was made on Monday by the teams chosen several days ago, for new members for the local Chamber of Commerce which is being reorganized.

According to Donald McLean, one of the leaders in the membership campaign, ninety-three business men were seen regarding the matter during the day. Of this number, eighty-three agreed to join the commercial club. This is a splendid average to begin with and the prospects are bright for the rapid formation and growth of the organization.

MANY FANS ARE GOING

Greencastle Plays Friday Evening and Again Saturday Afternoon, in What Will Be Deciding Game

The sectional basketball tournament will be held on Friday and Saturday in the high school gymnasium at Bainbridge. This is the first time this tourney has ever been held outside of Greencastle but owing to the small Greencastle H. S. gym and because of the urgent request of the north Putnam town for the affair, Bainbridge was selected as the sectional center this year.

Nine quintets are entered in the tournament, the teams being: Greencastle, Bainbridge, Cloverdale, Fillmore, Roachdale, Reelsville, Putnamville, Clinton Center and New Mayssville.

The local high school aggregation will play their first game of the tourney on Friday night at 7:30 o'clock when they meet Reelsville. Providing they win this game, the locals will play the winner of the Cloverdale-Bainbridge contest in the semi-finals at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. If they emerge victorious in this scrap the Tiger Cubs will probably meet either Russellville or Fillmore in the final game for sectional honors.

According to reports from Bainbridge a large crowd will be present for both days of the basketball meet and plans are being made to take care of the teams and their respective groups of fans.

WABASH COMING

Coach Vaughan and his Wabash cravasy will close their 1914 basketball season Thursday night when the Earle regulars journey to Greencastle for their return battle with the Tigers.

The Little Giants are reported in good shape and ready for a stiff scrap for first honors. Wabash has not forgotten that one point victory of DePauw early in the year and an even break will be the goal of the Scarlet.

A number of the students will accompany the team and Greencastle authorities report that a capacity crowd is assured.—Crawfordsville Journal.

MENT, ATTORNEYS STATE

GOV. MAKES STATEMENT

Following His Arrest Monday Noon,
McCrays Says His Conscience is Clear and He will be Vindicated

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 26.—Attorneys for Governor McCray today announced that his indictment by the federal grand jury would not alter their plans for defending him on indictments returned by the Marion county grand jury.

They are nearly ready for him to go to trial on the charges of larceny, embezzlement and forgery pending against him in the county court.

After that case is disposed of, they say it will be time to take up the federal charges of fraudulent use of the mails and violation of the national banking laws.

Meanwhile, Governor McCray in a brief statement issued after he had surrendered to the United States Marshal yesterday, reaffirmed his innocence of any wrong doing in connection with his financial affairs.

The governor said his conscience was perfectly clear that he had not intentionally done any wrong, and that when he was given an opportunity to tell his side of the story in court he would be vindicated.

LUDENDORFF UP IN COURT

FAMOUS GERMAN MILITARY OFFICER
CHARGE WITH TREASON AGAINST BARBARIA.

MUNICH, Feb. 26.—In the gloomy chambers of the old war academy, all entrances to which were protected by barbed wire and armed soldiery, General Ludendorff, his step-son Lieutenant Heinz Pernet, Adolf Hitler and seven former army officers and doctors were tried for treason.

His head held proudly erect, a military and commanding figure despite his inconspicuous civilian clothes, Ludendorff stalked at the head of the little procession of prisoners as they were marched into the dock.

Hittler, notorious monarchist agitator, brought up the rear lugging a huge portfolio of defense documents under an arm.

Both Ludendorff and Hittler were warmly greeted when they entered the trial chamber where sixty newspapermen and fifty witnesses were the only ones besides judges and guards admitted.

Of the prisoners, only Lieutenant Robert Wagner was in uniform.

Ludendorff's bearing was proud and sneering, as though he ignored the somewhat ignominious position with which he was confronted.

A SURPRISE CALL

The household of Mr. and Mrs. John Gray was aroused on New Year's morning by threatening flames of fire, which fortunately were put out before their home was destroyed, but unfortunately not soon enough to save their canned fruit.

The Woman's Bible Class of College Avenue M. E. Sunday school, knowing of his loss, and wishing to express appreciation of Mrs. Gray's valuable work in and for it, gave her a surprise call on Monday afternoon, and left more than two dozen cans of fruit, such as gooseberries, strawberries, blackberries, cherries and peaches, and some glasses of jelly.

Mrs. Gray was one of thirteen charter members who organized this class nine years ago and who has unceasingly contributed to its interest and welfare.

CENTRAL BANK OPENING SOON

DATE OF OPENING AFTER RE-MODELING WILL BE EARLY IN MARCH. SOME CHANGES

The work of remodeling the Central National Bank and Central Trust Company building is progressing nicely and is nearing the place where the officials of the bank can tell when it will be completed and an opening announced. This will be early in March, they state.

On Monday the work had gotten to the place where the desks of the officers were moved from the rear of the building around the big vault to the front of the newly rebuilt room and the assistants were also moved to their new positions, just south of the officers' desks. Each assistant has his separate working department and each is plainly marked.

The whole interior of the new building is shaping up nicely and when cleaned up and completed, will be one of the finest banking institutions in any small city in the country. A definite opening date will be announced.

BAND WILL GIVE CONCERT

D'PAUW UNIVERSITY BAND TO GIVE ANNUAL CONCERT
FRIDAY NIGHT

When the DePauw University Band opens its Annual Concert next Friday night, its program will include a variety of famous compositions, but no one of them is a greater favorite, or will be appreciated more than the Best Loved Southern Melodies by Al Hayes. This one number alone is well worth the price of admission. A medley of old plantation songs, masterfully arranged by the most popular of modern light composers, it has the power of moving an audience to tears one moment, and carrying its hearers at the next to the realms of the same carefree lightheartedness enjoyed by the negroes of the South as they sat in the moonlight and happily sang and strummed a banjo.

DECATUR, Ills., Feb. 26—Fire which swept the Wabash shops here early this morning was brought under control at an early hour after a bitter battle by the entire fire department.

Starting in the coach shops, shortly before one o'clock this morning, the flames consumed six buildings in the Wabash yards including the coach shops, two office buildings, water supply service station, blacksmith shop, twelve passenger coaches and a large string of freight cars, at an estimated loss of $250,000.

Cause of the blaze is undetermined.

WABASH IS IN FIGHTING MOOD

WILL GIVE THE DEPAUW TIGERS
A HARD GAME HERE ON THURSDAY NIGHT.

The tickets for the DePauw-Wabash basketball game Thursday night went on sale this morning at Hamilton Book Store and indications are that standing room will be nil when the game opens. The seat sale may equal the Franklin game if it continues.

Greencastle fans always like to see Wabash and DePauw play and this game will be what is generally called a "hum-dinger." Wabash is cocky and coming to win. DePauw is in a fighting mood and is making plans to send them back with a decisive score. That one point margin the Tigers won a month ago, will not be repeated Thursday night.

It will be the last game for Capt. Thorn and another Wabash player. It will be the last home game for White, Laughlin and Capt. Wills of DePauw, one of the best trios ever to represent the University in basketball.

A number of cases of la grippe have been reported around the city this week. Those who are ill, however, have only minor cases and are not very sick.

the law, the affidavits must be filed with the county auditor between the first day of March and the first Monday in May, which will be May 5, this year. Those presented after the first Monday of May can not be accepted. Descriptions should be plainly and thoroughly written in the examination blank, which must be acknowledged before some authorized person to administer oaths. Exemptions to the amount of one-half of the assessed appraisement of real estate can be granted, provided that no one can get an exemption in excess of $1,000. Attorneys and notaries are asked to use the regular size and form of blank, because of the convenience in binding them.

The legislature of 1919 passed a law whereby soldiers or sailors of civil or Mexican war, who served three months or more can obtain an exemption of $1000 from the assessed valuation of their taxable property as evidenced by their pension certificate, provided they have reached the age of seventy years or more. The same exemption applies to the widow of any soldier or sailor of the war mentioned who have reached the age of sixty years or more. The law does not apply, however, it is pointed out by the auditor to soldiers and sailors or their widows whose taxable property has a value in excess of $5,000. Under the law those entitled to exemptions under this law must file their exemption blanks with the auditor between the first day of March and the first Monday of May, inclusive.

MOST HOUSES KEPT TOO DRY

Chill Comes From the Absence of Moisture in the Air, It is Declared.

What makes bad air bad? Most authorities agree that the factors that distinguish good from bad air are proper temperature, proper humidity and adequate movement. The maximum temperature of rooms for health is about 72 F. Most Americans like the temperature much higher and complain of feeling chilly when it is at this level. Why?

The principal reason is that the air is too dry. Dry air means that excessive evaporation of moisture takes place from the skin, mouth and nose, and this evaporation takes heat away from the body. The worst combinations between temperature and humidity are cold damp air, warm moist air and excessively dry air artificially warmed. The comfort zone lies between 68 and 70 F. with a humidity between 80 and 85 per cent.

The average indoor room in winter, according to Ellen A. Reynolds in Hygiene, has a humidity between 15 and 22 per cent and to offset the great loss of body heat which this causes the temperature is kept far too high. Evidence is accumulating in cases of respiratory diseases to show that a small decrease in the relative humidity affects the death rate appreciably.

They Were All Mackays

A man named Mackay left a Glasgow restaurant the other evening and was greatly annoyed to discover that a taxicab he had ordered was not to be seen. He promptly rang up the cab office to discover the reason for the carelessness.

"But, sir," said the clerk, "the driver told me that just a little while ago a gentleman came out and told him that Mr. Mackay's taxicab was not to wait."

"Mr. Mackay's taxicab?" bellowed the other. "Do you know what was taking place in the restaurant? A Clan Mackay gathering!"

WILSON DID NOT USE PRESS MUCH

FORMER PRESIDENT, HOWEVER,
KNEW VALUE OF PUBLICITY
ON HIGH OCCASIONS.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—Woodrow Wilson's relations with the press of the United States were unlike those maintained by any other recent president. He knew how to take advantage of high occasions for the use of the press for the presenting of his fixed opinions, but concerning the ordinary affairs of administration and even the world politics, he was silent when wide news publicity, it was believed, might have been of high service to his cause.

This with Woodrow Wilson probably was a matter of temperament. He was not what men call spontaneous. It was said occasionally in his life that he lacked a love of human companionship, but no man with Woodrow Wilson's sense of humor ever was entirely lacking in the human qualities which make for close friendship. On many an occasion when in conference with the body of Washington correspondents he would illustrate his meaning with a story always to the point and always sharply humorous.

The newspaper correspondents in Washington did not have the close relations with Woodrow Wilson that he had with his predecessors in office from Grover Cleveland's day. It was only once or twice during his administration that he permitted himself to be interviewed by an individual correspondent. For a considerable time, he met the newspaper men in a body, answered their questions and occasionally outlined to them some legislative or economic thought of his which he believed might be of interest to the public.

"Open Door" Not Very Open.

When Mr. Wilson came into office there was a belief in Washington that the White House would become an actively working bureau of information. This belief was founded on the president's statement concerning the necessity of "pitiless publicity." There was much talk about the open door, but the door never was thrown back far enough to strain its hinges.

When President Wilson wished to do, however, he knew how to present a matter so that it not only would be given publicity, but given it in a form bristling with news points. He knew news, but probably did not realize at all times its true value as an asset to his administration.

Once upon a time, however, Woodrow Wilson gave to the country a news story which had a continuing and enlarging life for months. The correspondents had gone to the White House for their weekly conference, fully believing for the most part, probably, that the day's proceedings would be but a repetition of those of other days which had produced no news of moment. In truth, a good many of the correspondents after attending a few of the president's conferences stayed away because they thought nothing ever was likely to develop to make them hurry to the telegraph office.

His Exposure of the Lobby.

On this particular occasion, however, Mr. Wilson began the conference by saying: "There is a pernicious lobby at work in congress against the interests of the people."

Then he outlined what he meant. Congress was stirred and the country was stirred and an investigation followed. It was found to the satisfaction of most people that a lobby was at work and that the president was right in calling it pernicious.

In the course of investigation it was discovered that some former members of congress, taking advantage of the fact that their one-time status gave them unchallenged entrance to the house and almost unchallenged entrance to the committee rooms, were here as the paid attorneys of certain of the country's great business interests.

The confessions of one or two of these gentlemen, forced confessions for the most part, it was thought would prevent any effort on their part in the future of attempted re-entry into public life—but one or two of them are sitting in congress today.

There probably will not be one-tenth as many anecdotes related in the future of Woodrow Wilson as there were of Theodore Roosevelt. Mr. Wilson did not lend himself readily to those things which make the spirit of an anecdote. Some of the men who were closely associated with him in an official way during his administration have stories about him laid by, and one day will tell them, but from the few of them that one has heard they are almost entirely of a serious nature, never frivolous and seldom light.

DePAUW NOTES.

Prof. Walter Bundy, professor of Bible in DePauw University, spoke at chapel this morning on the subject, "Youth and Religion." He gave a similar talk recently before the College Avenue Epworth League and he was requested to give it this morning for the benefit of those who did not attend then.

Prof. Bundy said that he believed the present day young man or woman is as religious as were those of the preceding generation, but if they were not it was not their fault, rather the fault of their being reared in a day of materialistic tendencies. Jesus is greater today than ever before in people's concepts, the speaker pointed out.

In closing, Prof. Bundy spoke of the coming religious revolution, when Christ's teachings will be not only praised but people will try more earnestly to live by them and attempt to carry on the principles laid down by the Master.

Dean Catherine S. Alvord is in Chicago, attending a convention of Deans of Women.

Bishop L. J. Birney, who has been active in missionary work in China for four years, will appear in Greencastle March 3 to 6 as the Beamer lecturer. Bishop Birney is a graduate of Union College, Ohio, and one of the outstanding religious and missionary leaders in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Beamer lectures were made possible by the $3,000 gift of the late Mrs. Kerilla D. Beamer, of Kokomo, Ind.

Recognition service will again be held this year for those persons who have achieved outstanding success in their college work and these honors will be bestowed upon the students following class day chapel of Commencement week. The committee in charge of this event is planning to make more of the service than has been made in past years.

At times the kidneys become inactive and need a good diuretic stimulant such as FOLEY PILLS to increase their activity. J. D. Stephens, Samson, Ala., states: "I was troubled with my kidneys. I tried FOLEY PILLS, and am now better off physically than I have been in several years."

The Martha Washington Club will meet with Mrs. Emmett Green, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock instead of Wednesday as usual. Members please take notice of change in date.

EVANGELIST COMING

Evangelist J. W. Montgomery, of the District Superintendent of the Kentucky District of the Church of the Nazarene will arrive today. A revival meeting is now in progress at the Nazarene Church.

Brother Montgomery is a successful evangelist and comes with the anointing of the Holy Spirit. This country is in dire need of a revival of "Old Time Religion." We are in full sympathy with William Jennings Bryan on the subject of "Fundamentals." Modernized methods in religion do not reach the hearts of men.

The Evangelist will preach each evening. Week night service begin at 7:30. On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week there will also be day services at 2 p. m.

We want those who know the Lord to unite with us in earnest prayer. Everybody is urged to attend these services.

INDIANAPOLIS LIVESTOCK

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 26.—Hog prices lost part of Monday's sharp gain here today, but the decline was not abrupt, in the face of increased receipts of 11,000 head. The decline was generally 5 to 10 cents.

Shippers at the outset paid $7.45 for all weights, but packers bought their supplies a nickel lower. The day's top was $7.50 paid for a few loads. Sows and pigs sold unchanged, pigs down from $7 and sows down from $6.50.

Receipts of cattle, 1,600 were the heaviest in weeks and prices tended lower. The poor class of stock contributed to the decline. No prime steers were received. Prices for steers sustained losses of 15 to 25 cents. Butcher grades, canners and cutters ruled steady.

Unusually heavy receipts of 1,000 caused calf prices to drop a half dollar to a top of $15. The bulk moved at $14 to $14.50.

Sheep and lambs sold on an unchanged basis, lambs down from $15 and ewes down from $8. Receipts were 150.

In the opening speech of his campaign, Reed last night assailed McAdoo as a man who "expected to realize more than a million dollars from the influence he gained while in the Wilson cabinet."

Reed said McAdoo, through his law firm, expected to collect $744,000 in fees from coal shipped to the Italian and French governments in shipping board deals engineered by him for the Morse companies, a $50,000 fee for obtaining $100,000 from the government to save one of the Morse companies from bankruptcy, $50,000 for lifting a receivership from another Morse company, $100,000 from the motion picture interests and $150,000 from Doheny.

LATE WINTER COATS REVEAL SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST

LADY FASHION has shown some very decided preferences in the matter of coat styles for midwinter and these are the points that are interesting to designers of spring garments. One of these much-emphasized features is the liking for fur accessories, especially the fur collar, and for fur introduced in trimming touches.

There is no doubt of the survival of the fur collar in spring styles, and even for summer there is every reason to believe that "summer furs" will play a conspicuous part in coat styles. Meantime certain features revealed in the two coats pictured here have met with ever-increasing approval. The braiding on the coat at the left is an example. The coat is made of a silky pile fabric, overlaid with soutache braid in a pattern called by the enlightening, if somewhat crude, term—"wiggly." Circular, uncovered spaces are left all over the coat, which is a side-tie model, affording the warmth of a double breast and fastening with a large button at the neck and side. Here also ties of the coat material make assurance doubly sure.

The beaver collar and cuffs are keeping with the richness of the broad covered fabric, in a soft brown shade. More recent designing appears in the coat shown at the right—also a pile fabric garment, in dark gray. It has a collar of gray fox fur and bandings of this fur on the cuffs and a portion of the skirt. It is to be noted that the sleeves are somewhat small, but the odd new cuffs, ample and fur-trimmed, lend them much style value. The skirt portion of the coat is shorter than in early winter models but it retains the side-tie fastening and emphasizes the graceful wrap-around style by a cascaded drapery finished with fur banding.

New coats intended for present selling are presented in sports and semi-sports styles in which plaids and stripes are featured. The most noticeable color innovation appears in shades of green—soft and somewhat light, and nearly always having fur collars in light colors, that make a lovely contrast against the green background.
